Sports centre will make a splash

by Jack Dixon

WORK on a new watersports centre in West Bay is set to begin, after additional funding for the project was approved this week by district councillors.

The project, which is being led by Bridport Town Council, will include converting the former toilets at Fisherman's Green into changing facilities and storage units for local clubs, and more than £26,000 – on top of £20,000 already granted – has now been provided to make the plans a reality.

In addition, new river pontoons will be created to enable kayaks to get in and out of the river more easily and there will be further funding for internal improvements to the Salt House.

Councillor Sarah Williams, Leader of Bridport Town Council, said work was ready to get underway and that the new building should be completed by the summer.

She said: "The watersports centre will provide space for the canoe and gig clubs as well as providing storage space for other watersports users, and a new pontoon at the rear of the building.

"This building, the Salt House and Fisherman's Green can now be transferred into the town council's ownership, from the district council, and we will be installing new information boards on the Green.

"The facilities on offer at the Salt House have been improved and we hope that this area will be used for more activities throughout the year, both by local residents and visitors.

"It is very exciting that we are now able to move forward with this project and the town council is very grateful for the support of West Dorset District Council.

"It is great news that the funding has been agreed to allow the plans for the watersports centre to progress and we hope that the new building will be completed later this summer."

The district council's executive committee voted to award the project an additional £26,000 on Tuesday (May 20th), on top of £20,000 already ear-marked for the scheme – 90 per cent of the total cost of the project.

The majority of the funding – £35,000 – has come from the district council's West Bay Enhancement Fund, with a further £5,000 added from its Leisure Development Fund.

Councillor Robert Gould, Leader of West Dorset District Council, said the new centre would provide an important boost for tourism in West Bay.

He said: "It is great news that West Bay will be getting a new watersports centre. I am glad we have been able to step in and find the money to help make it happen.

"We are lucky to live in such a lovely area and good facilities will mean even more people will come and enjoy West Bay. It should attract more visitors and give our economy a further boost."

RICHARD Mabb lives in Askerswell and is the owner and founder of Saison! Seasonings.

After 10 years running his own marketing agency in London, Mr Mabb moved back to his family home in Askerswell in 2003, where he began his first food business, Gustosecco Risottos.

Following years of fine dining and shopping for produce around the world, he launched Saison! Seasonings in 2012 where he specialises in dishing up variations on traditional British food.

● HOW did the idea for Saison! Seasonings come about?

I'm a foodie who's been lucky enough to shop at produce markets and eat at grand restaurants, in cheap cafes, on building sites, on city streets, on country roadsides and in people's homes in places from Spain to Libya to Sicily, Venice, Greece, Lebanon and especially Turkey.

I wanted a quick, convenient way of adding their wonderful flavours to our everyday food and came up with the idea of adding authentic regional ingredients to salt and pepper, the necessities of good seasoning.

Local farm shops including Washingpool and Felicity's backed me when I first started and their generous support helped me find a wider public. I'm very fortunate to have been taken on by a national distributor and as sales grow so is the seasonings range, which now includes variations on basic British grub including stews, fish, roast veg, chops and pies.

● YOU also appeared on BBC Radio Solent alongside Katie Martin. How was that?

Katie was a blast! The only thing is I think I talked too much. Katie started a conversation on food and I couldn't help myself. I only shut up when she asked me if I sneezed while packing pepper. Then all I could do was to laugh.

● YOU also travel to different food festivals with your range of seasonings. Where can we see you over the next few months?

Our big launch for this year will be our first ever Saison! Christmas gift packs - Winter Home Cooking, Mediterranean Cooking, Cooking with Chilli and Ottoman Cooking. We have many new and exciting ingredients to source, products to make and labels to design for these between now and September so I'm holding back from food festivals until Eat Dorset at Parham House on October 18th and 19th.

● WHAT has been the most exciting thing to happen in your career so far?

It was quite a moment when the 2013 "Masterchef" winner Natalie came up to my stand at the BBC Good Food show in Birmingham last June and bought our Lavender & Nutmeg Sugar, Orange, Fennel & Chilli Salt and Strawberry & Mint Pepper. Natalie was lovely and seemed really interested in talking about how flavours work together. We talked for what seemed like hours though it can only have been five minutes. Five minutes of magic for me!

● WHAT three items would you like to have on a deserted island with you?

If there isn't room for my own seasonings then firstly I'd want salt. Not that I'm always thinking about food but we can't do without salt and I know that it'll make whatever strange foodstuffs I find taste better. Then Turkish red chilli flakes, which I use to boost the flavour of almost everything savoury.

● IF you weren't in the food business, what job would you have?

I'd like to be a soul singer. Nothing makes me happier on any given day than listening to Smokey Robinson, Marvin Gaye, Bobby Womack and Jimmy Cliff. But you wouldn't want to hear me down at the factory duetting with them via the radio!

National spotlight on Councillor Kayes as she calls for Lib Dems' leader to quit BRIDPORT councillor Ros Kayes, the Liberal Democrat Prospective Parliamentary Candidate for West Dorset, made national news headlines over the weekend by calling for party leader Nick Clegg to resign.

Councillor Kayes, who serves on the town, district and county councils, told the BBC in a Radio 5 live interview: "If you were to ask the general public what it is they don't like, they wouldn't say they don't like the coalition, they would say they don't like Nick Clegg."

"As an individual he's a lovely bloke, I just don't think he's the right person to carry on leading the party."

She continued: "Nick Clegg has become a real hate figure. He hasn't stood by ordinary people and has not been listening to them. When that happens, his position becomes untenable."

Her comments were also featured on BBC1's Sunday Politics, where Lib Dem president Tim Farron defended Nick Clegg. Former leader Lord Ashdown also gave the Deputy Prime Minister his backing.

Last week's results in council elections across the country were followed on Sunday night with the news that the Liberal Democrats had lost all but one of their MEPs in the European Parliament.

Casualties included long-standing South West MEP Sir Graham Watson, who visited a storm-hit West Bay in February in the aftermath of the torrential weather at the beginning of the year.

Seeking to clarify her comments on Tuesday, Councillor Kayes said: "Firstly, the BBC decided to focus on the parliamentary candidates involved and not the far larger number of councillors who are signatories – I believe that was unfortunate on their part.

"Nonetheless, signing an internal party letter asking Nick to consider his position was, I believe the best way to stimulate debate in the party about the way forward and for the issues raised to be taken seriously. It is only too easy for political leaders to get into a bunker mentality and avoid listening.

"We've seen that with all the main parties in the recent election, and we've seen what the public think of it. They want to be listened to.

"Listening is what we as a party need to do following the recent election results. Any party leader needs to self-reflect in this way also. My perception is that this kind of self-reflection has not yet taken place. It needs to.

"I will happily support any decision taken by the party once I am assured that these very serious issues have been considered.

"I believe that they are now being considered – raising them has not been easy but they undoubtedly needed to be raised."

UKIP topped the poll in the South West region, as they did across the country. Two UKIP members were elected, alongside two Conservatives, one Labour and one Green Party candidate.

The turnout for the election was slightly higher in West Dorset (40.65 per cent) than elsewhere in the region, where the overall turnout was 37.03 per cent. The number of votes cast for each party in the South West was:

- United Kingdom Independence Party - 484,184 (two MEPs elected);
- Conservative Party - 433,151 (two MEPs elected);
- Labour Party - 206,124 (one MEP elected);
- Green Party - 166,447 (one MEP elected);
- Liberal Democrats - 160,376;
- An Independence From Europe - 23,169;
- English Democrats Party - 15,081;
- British National Party - 10,910.

The six elected Members of the European Parliament for the South West are: William Dartmouth (United Kingdom Independence Party), Ashley Peter Fox (Conservative Party), Julia Reid (United Kingdom Independence Party), Julia McCulloch Girling (Conservative Party), Claire Miranda Moody (Labour Party) and Molly Scott Cato (Green Party).

Husband and wife authors in town

TWO local authors – husband and wife team Neil Sentence and Kate Scott – will each be launching their new books at a special event in Bridport next weekend.

Mr Sentence will be celebrating the publication of his first book – 'Water and Sky' – while Mrs Scott is releasing the latest in her 'Spies in Disguise' series for children, 'Boy In a Tutu'.

The launch is taking place on Saturday, June 7th at Waterstones, 21 East Street between 10am and 12noon.

New trailway opens

The trailway, developed by sustainable transport charity Sustrans, has been designed to encourage more people to walk or cycle for their daily commute to school or work.

And the team behind the trailway design say it will benefit many people across the two communities.

Sustrans Dorset area manager Kevin Humphreys said: "This new, off-road, all-weather cycleway will provide an important link between the two communities, enabling more people to walk and cycle as part of their everyday journeys while avoiding a busy and hilly stretch of Sea Road North. Nearby Bridport Primary School is a Sustrans 'Bike It' school and will also benefit from this new link."

The project was funded by Dorset County Council's local transport fund in conjunction with the Department of Transport's 'Links to Communities' fund, and the completed West Dorset trailway will eventually link up towns and villages all the way from West Bay to Maiden Newton, following the course of a disused railway line.

Opening the trailway, Councillor Ray said the project was another example of the type of results that can be achieved through communities 'working together in partnership'.

She added: "Congratulations to the many people who made this cycle path possible. Parents of our school children can rest easy knowing that there is now an off-road alternative path to the busy St Andrews Road."

"I would also like to extend my thanks to Sustrans and their supporters for their patience and persistence in negotiating with the landowners, to the landowners themselves, and to the county council for coming up with the money."

"Also thanks to Bridport Town Council and Bradpole Parish Council for backing the project."

"It shows how, once again, 'working together in partnership' can produce results."

Make time for tea

THE Dorset children's hospice service, Julia's House is inviting people to hold a tea party and buy some care time for a life-limited family.

The appeal has been backed by West Dorset-based actor Martin Clunes, a patron of the service.

The charity launched 'Time For Tea' last autumn as part of its 10th birthday celebrations.

It proved so popular it is now set to become an annual event.

Friends, family, villages, businesses, communities and clubs are being invited to get together and help raise pots of cash for Dorset's only children's hospice.

Garden parties, cake bakes, tea breaks or just a few friends getting together for a cuppa - 'Time for Tea' is a very social way to support Julia's House.

The campaign is once again being sponsored by Dorset Tea who is also providing recipe cards and a voucher for a free pack

JULIA'S House Patron Martin Clunes is backing the 'Time for Tea' challenge of tea for everyone who pledges to hold a party.

"Time for Tea" will be officially launched on Saturday, June 7th and will then run throughout the summer, giving people the chance to organise some outdoor events - British weather permitting!

"Last year Time for Tea raised enough money to pay for more than 450 hours of care for local children," said fundraiser Sue Miles.

"It would be wonderful to try and beat that. We had people from all over the country, not just Dorset, raising money for us last year, which was amazing."

To register for your 'Time For Tea' fundraising pack, please email timefortea@juliashouse.org

The pack contains everything you need to run a successful party, from invites and posters to fundraising tips and tea - just add hot water and friends!

Businesses encouraged to enter 2014 tourism awards

THE 2014 Dorset Tourism Awards have been launched, with new website, new categories and an entry deadline of June 29th.

A year since the launch of the inaugural Dorset Tourism Awards, tourism businesses across the county are being invited to enter the 2014 Awards.

The awards were launched with the aim of helping Dorset become more widely recognised as a top quality tourism destination and Dorset businesses being recognised as excellent through success in the regional and national awards.

Organiser Robin Barker is delighted by its' success to date and said: "In 2012 just four Dorset and Bournemouth businesses made it through to the finals of the South West awards.

Mr Alder added: "The standard of entries last year was superb and sur-

"With the help of the 2013 Dorset awards, that figure tripled to 13, and our aim is to grow it still further."

Andrew Alder, partner with headline sponsor, Bournemouth accountants, Saffery Champness, said: "After the success of the inaugural Dorset Tourism Awards we are delighted to continue with our arrangement and this year we are introducing two new initiatives.

"Firstly, we are going to sponsor a Tourism Entrepreneur Award to recognise individual innovation and leadership within the tourism industry. Secondly, shortly after the awards evening in October, Safferys will be hosting a Winner's Dinner to celebrate the achievements of gold award winners."

Mr Alder added: "The standard of entries last year was superb and surpassed all expectations - 2014 has all the ingredients to be even better!"

The awards include 16 categories and are open to all sectors of the industry across Dorset, including accommodation, attractions, events, activity providers, pubs, places to eat and drink and venues. They will culminate in an awards ceremony at the Tank Museum, Bovington on Thursday, October 16th.

Winners will then be fast tracked into the South West awards, with South West winners submitted to the national VisitEngland awards in 2015. Entry is free and all entrants receive feedback.

Full information and entry forms can be found at www.dorsettourismawards.org.uk.

The deadline for entering is midnight on Sunday, June 29th.

West Bay road changes could be 'lethal'

CONTROVERSIAL changes made to the road layout on West Bay Road have made the junction "potentially lethal" for elderly residents and the priority turn must be reverted back towards the harbour, campaigners warned this week.

Members of the West Bay Community Forum, which has long opposed the junction redesign, have spoken out against council highways bosses who claim the new priority turn will slow traffic and encourage drivers to use the nearby Station Road car park.

And the manager of a nearby residential home has voiced her concerns with safety at the junction, where there is no longer a designated crossing for elderly residents. Instead, a shared surface 'pedestrian-friendly' area between the church and the shops has been proposed.

In a letter to WBCF, Jean Adams, manager at the Harbour

by Jack Dixon

House Residential Care Home, said: "The area of particular concern to all of us is the natural crossing point adjacent to St John's Church and opposite Harbour Stores."

"Prior to the disastrous change, there was a natural and safe crossing point where anyone, particularly the elderly or frail people who are so often using the road, could safely stop."

"Since the change, the crossing has become not only fraught with danger, but as the view of the road is no longer clear, it is potentially lethal."

WBCF vice-chairman Michael Nicks said the junction was "ridiculous" and echoed residents' concerns.

He added: "Both councils have stated that the 'new' priority would encourage people to park in the Station Road car park. It is obvious that on busy days this car park is full, and vehicles have to leave to find other places to park."

"We realise that some people in West Bay think that this 'new' priority is a means of slowing the traffic but we believe that this is not proved as there appears to be no data available stating the number of cars which were speeding at this junction prior to the change in priority."

Summer and winter vehicle counts, carried out by WBCF last year and earlier this year respectively, indicate that significantly higher numbers of vehicles used the previous priority turn as opposed to the 'new' one – on a road used by more than 500 vehicles an hour during the summer, they claim.

A petition organised by the group last year gathered almost 1,500 signatures from residents who wanted to see the 'pinch point' removed and the priority turn reverted.

Mr Nicks added: "Our vehicle counts carried out in summer 2013 and winter 2014 conclusively indicate that many more vehicles use the road towards the harbour than any other direction."

"This is a phenomenal amount of vehicles, particularly in view of the fact that Dorset County Council and West Dorset District Council do not wish to build a crossing but refer to a very large area of coloured tarmac where pedestrians can wander adjacent to the church and the shops – it is common sense that this should not be an area which has the potential to be thronged with pedestrians."

West Dorset District Councillor for Bridport South David Tett said the situation was "disheartening".

He added: "The district council unanimously supported the petition presented by the West Bay Community Forum for a change of heart on the part of Dorset County Council, but it appears doomed from the outset. The statistics alone prove overwhelming evidence for a change back to a right hand turn into the Bay. I regret common sense has not prevailed and neither has local democracy."

WBCF wished to place on record its thanks to Councillor Tett, Dorset County Councillor Ros Kayes and West Dorset MP Oliver Letwin for their support on this issue, and invite residents' comments to be sent by email to wbcf@outlook.com

Six-a-side champs

SHARP SHOOTERS | The West Dorset Schools Six-a-Side football tournament saw Uplyme (left) take the trophy after beating Bridport Primary (right) one-nil in the final. It was a repeat of the Kenway Cup final that saw both teams go head to head earlier in the week, in a reverse of the result. A total of 18 teams from West Dorset primary schools took part in the Six-a-Side tournament held at St Mary's Playing Fields on Thursday (May 22nd).

Big crowds for annual dog show

TOP DOGS | The Brit Valley Rotary Club hosted another successful dog show at the Melplash Showgrounds at the weekend, with proceeds donated to local and national charities. The Companion Dog Show, which raises money for Julia's House, Parkinson's UK and the Rotary Club's local charities, had both pedigree classes and a fun ring with trophies given to contestants finishing from first place to fifth. Organisers welcomed back the Portland Dog Agility Team who gave demonstrations in the display ring along with the Guide Dogs Organisation and 'Woofability' showing visitors how dogs can be trained to assist their owners. John Dobinson, a member of the Brit Valley Rotary Club, said the turnout of 125 entrants made the event a success, considering the wet weather in the run-up to the show.

Carers' week to celebrate Bridport's unsung heroes

BRIDPORT residents will be invited to pay tribute to some of the town's "unsung heroes" during National Carers' Week next month.

Dorset County Council has teamed up with local charity Access Dorset to host an event at Bridport Arts Centre to highlight the work of carers and raise awareness of services that can help.

Across the county, around 50,000 people provide unpaid care to friends or relatives who are frail or disabled.

And there has been a significant increase in the number of young carers, with more than 2,000 of those people providing unpaid care under 24.

Councillor Jill Haynes, Cabinet Member for Adult Social Care, said she hoped the event would encourage carers to come forward to find out more about how they can access support.

She said: "Carers are the unsung heroes, often caring without realising the difference they are making, and they are not always aware of the help and support that is available for them.

"We want to encourage carers to come along to the event to meet other carers and find out more about a range of services available to support them – people do not need to cope alone."

Councillor Michael Bevan, the council's champion for carers, added: "National Carers' Week gives us an opportunity to highlight the excellent work carers do to support their friends or family.

"It is essential that they are fully aware of the wide range of financial, practical and emotional support available to them to stay healthy and safe themselves.

"The event is informal so people can drop in anytime."

The carers event will take place on Monday, June 9th at Bridport Arts Centre, running from 10am till 2pm, including a free lunch and refreshments.

Be on the alert for a scam this month

BRIDPORT'S Citizens Advice Bureau is turning residents' attentions to doorstep scams as part of its Scams Awareness Month campaign.

This is the final week of a month of campaigning to improve awareness of the various types of scams, occurring online, by post, on the phone or through doorstep selling.

Shaun Powell, project officer at the Citizens Advice Bureau said: "Bogus tradesmen, door-to-door sales or doorstep fraud involves fraudsters trying to scam you after knocking at your door. Many honest businesses use doorstep selling but so do fraudsters.

"They may provide a false identity or contact information, making it impossible to identify or contact them and if you have paid them in advance, it is unlikely you will get your money back."

He added: "Also, be wary of opening your door to a potential burglar or someone who wants to get inside your property to enable other people to break in.

"Once they get through your door, fraudulent salespeople can take note of your valuables and any security measures you have in place."

PENNY Steventon has left Bridport Leisure Centre after 16 years to travel around Europe

TRAMPOLINE and swimming coach Penny Steventon has left Bridport Leisure Centre after 16 years to follow her dream and drive around Europe.

Mrs Steventon, who covered swimming, trampoline and Aqua Fit classes at the centre, is excited to be travelling around Europe with her husband Dave in their converted ambulance, starting at Saint-Malo, in north-west France, with only a rough guide of where they are heading and no plans set in stone.

Mrs Steventon said: "It is something I have always wanted to do. When I was 10, my brother travelled to Morocco with some university friends in a transit van and I remember them coming back wearing kaftans and beads and thought it was fantastic – ever since then it has been something I have wanted to do."

The pair are hoping to travel for a year through France, Spain, Portugal, Italy, Germany and Switzerland, documenting their adventure on their blog for friends and family back in the UK and Australia to keep up with their journey.

She added: "I am very sad to leave the leisure centre, I have worked with some lovely people and will certainly miss them a lot along with many of the customers.

"But I am not retiring. I am having a gap year, although perhaps it is a little late."

The pair are hoping to travel for a year through France, Spain, Portugal, Italy, Germany and Switzerland, documenting their adventure on their blog for friends and family back in the UK and Australia to keep up with their journey.

Have your say on health services

NHS bosses at Bridport Medical Centre are opening their doors to patients next week to encourage service users to have their say.

Members of the NHS Dorset Clinical Commissioning Group engagement and communications team will be on hand to answer questions about the service, as part of its 'Patient Participation Awareness Week'.

The nationwide initiative is aimed at driving up patient feedback in order to help shape future services, and health experts are calling on residents to offer their views.

Dr Forbes Watson, chairman of the NHS Dorset CCG, said: "All decisions we make on local services as a commissioning organisation should be influenced by those people who use those services.

"In order to help us achieve this aim we want as many diverse views as we can possibly get in order to ensure we have an equitable view.

"Recent examples have included shaping local maternity, cardiology and respiratory services; so whatever you can offer, please contact us and get involved."

The NHS Dorset CCG is responsible for planning and buying a variety of health services for over 750,000 people across the county.

Decisions are made after extensive feedback from partner organisations and members of the public, working with local GP surgeries to bring information or concerns to the attention of staff.

A spokesperson added: "In order to provide services effectively we work closely with a number of groups who help us shape our decisions and give feedback at every step of the way."

Further information is available at www.napp.org.uk

"Made up of a range of people – including partners and members of the public – this feedback helps us ensure the services we do commission are appropriate and equitable, meeting the needs of the local population. No matter what your circumstances and the level of commitment you can offer, you can get involved and make your voice heard."

Members of the engagement and communications team will be at Bridport Medical Centre on Tuesday, June 3rd between 10am and 11am, and again between 1:30pm and 4:30pm to give out information and answer any questions.

Further information is available at www.napp.org.uk

Fire crews rescue trapped horse

A BRIDPORT fire crew helped to rescue a horse when it became trapped in a ditch in Broadoak last week.

Crews were alerted to the incident just before 6pm on Thursday evening (May 22nd), where a horse was stuck in ditchwater at Antrim Lane.

Firefighters from Bridport were joined at the scene by the special animal rescue team from Poole to help rescue the horse.

A spokesperson for Dorset Fire and Rescue said: "The Bridport crew assisted by using a shovel to dig the bank away and used a hay bale to make a step up the bank so that the horse could self-rescue, which it did and therefore the animal rescue team were no longer required."

Walking to school

THE children and staff of St Mary's Primary School enjoyed walking and riding to school on Tuesday, May 20th, in support of Walk to School Week.

Many children and parents joined the staff to walk from Plottingham playing fields and West Bay, with many children joining in en route.

Although heavy rain was forecast, the weather held off, and it is hoped that next year even more children will be able to join in.

BRIDPORT Pantomime Players have once again produced their Annual Summer Quiz Sheet. Copies of this popular quiz are now available from the Bridport Tourist Information Office under the Town Hall, South Street.

Beware: brickosaur!

MONSTER MODEL | Bridport Museum is now home to a two-metre long Lego dinosaur as part of a Jurassic Coast Museum project by the company Bright Bricks. The company makes bespoke Lego models and its latest model, consisting of around 12,000 bricks, is based on Bridport Museum's 'dinosaur's bottom' - a partial plesiosaur skeleton found several years ago at the base of Golden Cap. Bright Bricks has also made some smaller limited edition Lego kits of the dinosaurs to accompany a number of events running at Bridport Museum over the summer, including a competition to name the plesiosaur and a 'build a brickosaur' workshop for children aged between six and 12 years old with artist Darrell Wakelam. To find out more or make a booking, email the museum at office@bridportmuseum.co.uk or call 01308 458703.

■ FIRST TIME | Valerie Smillie brought her vintage collectibles to the market at St Michael's trading estate on Sunday

THE Vintage Market at Bridport's St Michael's Trading Estate is back in business.

Last weekend saw the first market since December 2011, with traders returning to the estate to mark the start of Dorset Art Weeks.

Commenting on the turnout for the event, Richard Payne Withers, from Alleyways Antiques Centre, said: "It was brilliant and it was great to see the place back as it used to be.

"We had a fantastic day with a brilliant atmosphere and lots of lovely people.

"The weather was kind to us and sales were fantastic.

"We would like to say a big thank you to Hayward & Co and the Vintage Market organising committee for making the market possible."

The market, which is held on the last Sunday of each month, began in 2010 as an extension to the antique and vintage businesses based on the estate.

Open from 10am to 4pm, the market includes the antiques centre, surrounding vintage shops and stalls of furniture, flowers and food, and this year returns to mark the start of Dorset Art Weeks.

Tracy Caden, a member of the market organising committee and one of the business owners at St Michael's, said: "The first market was absolutely fantastic with a really lovely and friendly atmosphere and a great feel of community spirit. We have had people booking for the next market already which is brilliant."

Martin Ridley of Hayward & Co said: "The market has been a great example of traders on the estate and traders who had a pitch pull together for the benefit of St Michael's as a whole.

"We all worked together benefiting everyone involved in the Vintage Market.

"We need to see more of this and will see more in the future as the market helps to promote the uniqueness of the estate and also benefits the town."

Inspiring evening at art society

YET again there was a packed house for Richard Turner's pastels demonstration at Bridport Art Society.

Richard exhibits and teaches throughout the country including the Pastels Society and Mall Galleries in London and will be exhibiting at Newland Gallery in Sherborne from June 12th - 14th.

Through three separate pictures, including a pen sketch of the Queen with pastel applied, he demonstrated different marks, processes and techniques and stressed the importance of composition and tone.

In order to demonstrate the effect of these, he used seven different surfaces including lay paper, pastel card and sandpaper. Using both hard and soft pastels, the artist was able to show how he creates shapes and tones, working from dark tones, through mid tones to light ones; an altogether enjoyable and inspiring evening.

There is no evening demonstration in June, but the 57th Annual Exhibition at Bridport Art Centre, will soon be with us, running from July 23rd until August 2nd.

Members are reminded that entry forms for all crafts should be received by Tuesday July 8th.

All new members to the society are welcome and should contact the secretary on 01308 423894 for more details of how to join.

May Fair returns for another year

CHILDREN of the Lyric School of Dancing had fun demonstrating a variety of traditional maypole dances

MEMBERS of Bridport Dog Club show off their skills in the main ring

SOUTH Dorset Vintage Motorcycle Club displayed a vast selection of vintage motorcycles

HUNDREDS flocked to the Millennium Green for the 14th annual May Fair held on Spring Bank Holiday Monday.

The fair, organised by the Friends of the Millennium Green group, saw maypole dancing from members of the Lyric School of Dancing, the crowning of the May Queen – Amy Laurence – and displays by Bridport Dog Club and South Dorset Vin-age Motorcycle Club.

This was accompanied by music, stalls of arts and crafts, refreshments, cakes, a raffle and a lucky dip.

Teresa Grinter, a member of the Friends of the Millennium Green who helped organise this year's fair, said: "It's been lovely – we like to see people using the open space on the Millennium Green."

"We have had more stalls this year and the weather has been kind to us, which has been a reason for cancelling the celebrations a couple of times."

The money raised will go towards the upkeep of the gardens and next year's May Fair.

ONE thousand ducks helped swell the funds of the Jurassic Fields Music Festival when they made a dash down the River Brit on Sunday. The race from the bridge leading to Am-Safe in St Swithuns Road to the bridge leading into the beer garden at The Tanners helped raise around £1,200 towards the cost of funding Bridport's first music festival to be held on July 12th at Asker Meadows.

After the race the winners and losers, together with a large crowd of supporters, celebrated or commiserated with a barbecue, whilst they listened to Shelby's Elbow and the Tattooed Beat Messiah, two of the acts that will be appearing at the all day event.

Winner of the £250 first duck over the line was Tom Summers (338) who had around a three second lead over duck 427 owned by Harry Courtice who won £100, with Katrina Parminter's fast finishing duck 38 which earned her £50.

The ducks were rounded up at the finish by the Bridport crew of the Dorset Fire and Rescue Service, with only two reported to have made a break for freedom. The event was such a success that the pub ran out of several lines of beers and ciders.

Festival organiser Dan Broom said: "I'd like to thank everyone who supported the event both in buying ducks and those who came along to watch the race and enjoy the music and barbecue afterwards, and also the firemen for helping to catch the ducks at the finish."

The festival is a not-for-profit community event that also includes a comedy stage as well as a number of attractions for children to enjoy.

On your bike for air ambulance fundraiser

A MOTORCYCLIST, whose life was saved by air ambulance crews following a road accident 18 years ago, is encouraging Bridport residents to get on their bikes next month as part of his fundraising efforts for the organisation.

John Wells was saved by the quick responses of air ambulance crews after suffering a serious accident on the M4, and since then he has organised the annual John Wells Charity Bike Ride, along with support from his parents Robin and Helen.

All proceeds from the event, now in its 14th year, will be donated to the Air Ambulance by way of thanks, and Mr Wells is hoping to top last year's total of £1,400.

The ride will depart from The Crown pub at the West Bay roundabout on Sunday, June 8th at 10am, with registration at 9:30am. A BBQ will follow the event at The Crown when the riders return.

ENTHRALLING | A former pupil returned to his old school recently to pass on a few tips and inspire a few pupils into what has become an exciting and lucrative sport. Haydn Thomas, who plays Premiership rugby for Exeter Chiefs, visited St Catherine's School in Bridport where he coached Year Four and Five pupils before giving an inspiring talk to the whole school. The 31-year-old scrum half also attended The Sir John Colfox School before studying at the University of Exeter. Now in his third spell with the Chiefs he played for England against the Barbarians last year.

New beginnings

A BRIDPORT sandwich bar and coffee shop is gearing up for a major revamp in a bid to drum up trade.

Twenty-two-year-old Charlotte Hewlett, the new leaseholder at 'Get Stuffed', is planning to overhaul the shop when she takes over next month, having run it full-time for the last two years.

Ms Hewlett will rebrand the bar as 'All Things Nice @ No.3' with plans to shake up the colour scheme and design also in the pipeline.

She added: "We also have plans to introduce a new breakfast deal and to open on Sundays throughout the summer, and we would also like to start catering for parties, meetings and work-places."

When asked about the prospect of fast-food chain Subway opening a new branch in the town this summer, Ms Hewlett said she was "apprehensive" but was confident that the rebrand would help her to retain her "brilliant" regular customers.

Eype church on the up

EYPE residents fighting to save their village church will be celebrating the launch of a new Friends of St Peter's group this week, with a party to be held at the historic church.

Around 50 people signed up to express their objection to the possible closure of the church, following meetings held to produce an action plan in January.

Residents have pledged their support for keeping St Peter's going, as a space for church services and events, and also as the Eype Centre for the Arts – in the past the church has doubled as a recording studio for Dorset musician PJ Harvey.

And a 'friends' group has now been set up to steer the church forward.

Janet Allen, who has been leading support for the church and was recently appointed Chapel Warden, said: "The church has seen a big sort out inside and following a well-supported spring-clean just after Easter, is looking bright, fresh and sparkling again with a renewed air of vibrancy."

"The open afternoons and services have been well-attended with tea, coffee and homemade cakes proving popular."

The possibility of selling St Peter's for residential or commercial use was suggested last year, and Symondsbury Parochial Church Council had already started the process of closing it down.

But a recent surge in support for keeping the building has kept all options open for the time being.

Following the 'Big Sing' service on Sunday (June 1st) at 6pm, food and drink will be provided at St Peter's for a party to announce the launch of the 'friends' group, and residents are encouraged to pay a visit to discuss ideas for how to take the church forward. The event starts at 7pm.

For more information please contact Janet Allen on 01308 814480 or email janet@staffordlodge.com

U3A ring out at St Mary's

TOP OF THE TOWER | Members of Bridport and District University of the Third Age (U3A) were invited to St Mary's Church last week for a tour around the tower. The group were given the chance to ring the eight bells in the tower, and members of the ringing team explained some of the mysteries of bell ringing. They then continued upwards to see the clock mechanism and were shown how it is wound and how small corrections can be made to the time. This was followed by a final climb onto the roof of the church tower, where they were lucky to have fine weather and a clear view across Bridport and the surrounding areas. The visit chimed with a visit the group had made last year to Nicholson Engineering, the Bridport company that installs church bells around the world. Alan Hobby, of the U3A group, said: "It was a most interesting visit and we were lucky enough to be by the mechanism as it went through the process of chiming at midday."

Step forward for LSI restoration plans

PLANS to restore Bridport's Literary and Scientific Institute took a step forward this week with the submission of the final application for Lottery funding.

The Bridport Area Development Trust, which is working on proposals for the restoration, received a 'Round One' pass from the Heritage Lottery Fund around 18 months ago.

And the second funding bid has now been submitted, following the production of architectural plans and other reports to support the application.

The trust's Crystal Johnson, who has been leading the initiative, said: "The application to the Heritage Lottery Fund (HLF) has been under preparation since the Bridport Area Development Trust received a 'Round One' pass in late 2012, and has required the production of detailed architectural plans and other reports and plans to support the bid."

"The outcome of this application will not be known until the HLF Regional Panel makes its decision in September."

"At the same time, planning and listed building applications have been submitted to West Dorset District Council."

If and when the funding has been secured the registered plans will be available to view in the district council planning offices and online, and the BADT will be holding a public exhibition of the plans at Bridport Town Hall on Wednesday, June 4th from 10am to 2pm.

Bridport Leisure Centre – ‘Reducing Fossil Fuels on the Jurassic Coast’

OVER recent years, Bridport Leisure Centre has undergone a number of exciting changes – the completion of a magnificent refurbished and extended Gym facility, purchase of state-of-the-art fitness equipment, new modern changing rooms, a new roof over the sports Hall, the creation of two fully air conditioned dance / yoga studios, many upgrades to the air handling and heating systems to name just a few.

All in all, these year-on-year improvements with the exemplary customer service provided by the staff have resulted in the leisure centre being awarded the highest category award in the Nationwide Quality Award Scheme – Quest – with an ‘Excellent’ rating.

In fact, Bridport Leisure Centre is now one of the top 40 facilities in the whole of the UK, and is proud to announce further investment in the very near future to maintain its market position whilst striving for continuous improvement.

Unlike many leisure centres up and down the country, Bridport is rather unique. The leisure centre is operated as a limited company with charitable status.

The buildings are owned by Bridport and West Dorset Sports Trust Limited, a directorship of local people with the provision of sport and recreation at the heart of its ethos.

Any profits made from the operation of the trust are ploughed straight back in to the fabric and fitting of the facility.

The directors receive no payment for their time, skills and expertise gifted to the operation of the leisure centre ensuring its success and future sustainability.

The business has grown substantially over the last decade. The importance of a healthy lifestyle coupled with people’s greater awareness of the associated health benefits has undoubtedly been a major contributory factor in the continued success of the sports trust.

Nick Neale said: “We are lucky to be blessed with such good sporting facilities in and around a small market town in this part of West Dorset.

“I feel privileged to work and live in such a beautiful part of the country – close to the sea and the countryside.

“There are so many examples of good quality sporting provision in and around Bridport – the Bridport and West Bay Golf Club, the Hyde Real Tennis Court at Walditch, the Gig Rowing Club, the Squash Club, the Barracudas Swimming Club, the Bridport Running Club, the Hawks Hockey Club, the rugby, cricket and football Clubs with their respective thriving junior sections all run by enthusiastic volunteers who give up their time to ensure the enjoyment of so many.

“The Palmer family, in particular John and Cleeves, have been instrumental in facilitating so many sports and sporting facilities in West Dorset raising much needed funds and offering advice and support along the way – the golf club, the real tennis Club, the local cricket clubs and the gig rowing clubs being the most recent beneficiaries of their generous involvement.

“Perhaps not so well known is the provision of the leisure centre located at the Bridport Leisure Centre is set to become one of the most energy-efficient leisure centres in the country.

Brewery Fields site, on land generously leased to the sports trust by the Palmers for a peppercorn rent.

“It is this kind of support that has allowed the leisure centre to flourish where others have degenerated into poorly maintained, unattractive buildings resembling old school facilities which are sadly still commonplace in many towns and cities.”

In the next exciting phase of capital investment at Bridport Leisure Centre, the sports trust is pleased to announce that is embarking upon a substantial investment of over £440,000 to make the centre one of the most energy-efficient in the country.

The first project will include an array of 200 solar thermal panels to produce not only electricity through the photo-voltaic cells, but will also include new technology to allow the power of the sun to pre-heat the swimming pool water.

The energy savings and feed-in tariffs will provide the revenue to repay the loan in approximately seven years. Thereafter, the ‘extra’ revenue will be used to help sustain the upkeep of the facilities and replacement of equipment in the future.

The second project will focus on the replacement of various plant room items such as the swimming pool filters, calorifiers, pressurization vessels and most importantly the replacement of the air handling system to the changing rooms to provide a much-needed comfortable temperature for swimmers to get changed in after swimming in the centre’s popular swimming pools.

In addition, all of the showers throughout the facility will be replaced with aerated shower heads to provide further energy savings.

Finally, the project will include the replacement of the swimming pool thermal covers which are used every day to reduce heat loss via evaporation.

Bridport Leisure Centre is very grateful for the support it has received from various organisations in its latest quest for environmental sustainability, notably Sport England, Dorset Community Foundation, West Dorset District and Bridport Town Councils.

All other costs have been covered with commercial and community loans which the sports trust will repay from the energy savings generated from installing the latest technology.

Dr Bob Hardwick, from Lean Energy, said: “Bridport Leisure Centre is set to become one of the most energy-efficient leisure centres in the country.

“The leisure centre will not only reduce its carbon footprint significantly, it will dissipate its reliance on fossil fuels and therefore make savings that other facilities would not think possible.

“This is one of the ‘first’ of its kind to be installed in the UK and will definitely become a showpiece to demonstrate how swimming pools can be operated in as close to a ‘carbon neutral way’ as possible. These are truly exciting times.”

The works will have minimal effect on the organisation of the leisure centre and Nick Neale commented: “We aim to keep disruption to an absolute minimum for all existing users, although there may be the odd day here and there, where certain facility areas will be restricted.”

Customers are advised to check the Centre’s website for up to date information www.bridportleisure.com

We look forward to meeting you and showing you our premises and of course you may walk through our stunning wildflower meadows and admire the far-reaching views.

www.nationalcarehomeopenday.org.uk

ON JUNE 20th 2014, thousands of UK care homes will be opening their doors to welcome the public, connect residents with their local communities, and change perceptions of care homes for good.

The first ever National Care Home Open Day was such a huge success, we decided we'd do it all over again!

June 20th 2014 will see the UK's care homes take centre stage, welcoming the public and arranging lots of events and activities that will help to create lasting links between care home residents and their local communities.

For far too long the care home sector has been marred by the negative press associated with a small number of badly run homes, and we're determined to show people what care homes are really about. We're making some positive noise - and we want you to be part of it!

National Care Home Open Day is about connecting people! We want to enrich the lives of the UK's care home residents by reminding people that the care homes in every community are filled with unique, intelligent and charming characters, and run by special people that really do care.

But don't just take our word for it - we want to see you on June 20th, visit www.nationalcarehomeopenday.org.uk to see who is taking part and find out what they're planning for the big day! In the mean time, we need you to get involved and help us by spreading the word - just like us on Facebook or share with your friends on Twitter, and together we'll make a difference that lasts!

Thistlegate House

THE quality and equally the quantity of the staff that are employed within a residential care home is fundamental and vital for the sustained provision of high quality personal and individualistic care. Not only do they need to be highly trained in formal nationally recognised and measurable qualifications but also need special character qualities and everyday social skills together with an appreciation of the older generation, whose morals and standards may well differ from more recent trends. Effective communication skills is one of the most important qualities as without this particular skill proper understanding of the clients needs and wishes will not be understood and therefore the quality of care will suffer. Patience, empathy, commitment, resolve and an overall sense and desire to care is paramount.

At Thistlegate House we go to exacting lengths to firstly recruit the required calibre of staff and then provide them with the on-going training that will enable them to provide the very finest care for our clients. We regard our care team as exceptional and we are proud that each and every member of our team possess all of the above qualities together with total dedication and commitment. Although the quality of care that we provide is excellent we are never complacent and we continue to strive for ever increasing standards of care and a better understanding of our clients needs and wishes.

"GO FOR THE GRILL" WHATEVER THE WEATHER WITH THE 18TH NATIONAL BBQ WEEK MAY 26TH - JUNE 1ST 2014

VISIT WWW.NATIONALBBQWEEK.CO.UK FOR MORE INFORMATION

AFTER one of the wettest winters on record, the sun finally seems to be shining and we look set for some great weather, not just during this week's 18th National BBQ Week, but also throughout the summer!

As if on cue the Barbi's have already started and suddenly everyone seems to want to go for the grill!

Last year there were around 5 million BBQ's held across the 17th National BBQ Week and current predictions are indicating a significant increase on the 2013 level, but we'll see!

Barbi Tips From The Grill Master

1. Hot Tip - A good guide to grill temperatures is the hand test. Hold your hand around 6' from the grill; if you can only keep it there for around a minute, the temperature is too hot, 2-3 minutes is high and an ideal searing heat. 3-4 minutes means a medium temperature, ideal for normal grilling. 4-5 minutes is fairly warm and good for keeping food warm. Any longer and the grill is not ready.

2. A Long Soak - Marinated food tastes great and grills better, as apart from enhanced flavour, it also helps protect food against high grill temperatures. Normally the longer the better, but a simple tip to cut marinating time is to place food in a sealed plastic bag, massage in marinade and place in fridge. This cuts marinating time by half.

3. Low & Slow - BBQ is not a race against time, so don't grill too quickly or on too high a heat as this causes food to burn on the outside whilst being under cooked in the middle. The trick is to 'sear on high' and then take it 'low and slow'. It helps if the grill-bars are well oiled, but don't turn food to often as this reduces heat.

4. Gas or Charcoal? - Most first time BBQ'ers buy a simple charcoal grill, but gas grills can now cost under £50. So just what's the best? Well; gas is simpler to use and more easily controllable. Whilst charcoal is more traditional and adds that essential BBQ taste. A simple guide is 'gas for ease' and 'charcoal for taste'.

5. Barbi Parties - Choose a theme, the US, Australia, South Africa and South America, especially this World Cup year are all good. It also helps that they have great wine and beer too! The Caribbean & Mexico are also cool. Remember great Barbi parties are based on the three 'B's' – Blues (or any music you fancy), Booze & BBQ's.

6. Follow Smoky Joe - Enhancing that true smoky BBQ taste is best done on charcoal by throwing wet wood chips, herb branches on the coals. Try different types of wood, apple is good or vine clippings. A Beef Burger Recipe...

1 egg
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon ground black pepper
1 pound ground beef
1/2 cup fine dry bread crumbs

Preheat an outdoor grill for high heat and lightly oil grate. In a medium bowl, whisk together egg, salt and pepper. Place ground beef and bread crumbs into the mixture. With hands or a fork, mix until well blended. Form into 4 patties approximately 3/4 inch thick. Place patties on the prepared grill. Cover and cook 6 to 8 minutes per side.

paragus and aubergine.

7. Become a real Grill Star - Create some Barbi-theatre, by 'fanning-the-flames'. Quickly press down on meats or poultry with a long-handled spatula; this releases natural fats, causing a brief 'flare-up'. Please take great care when attempting and keep any clothing well clear. Do NOT attempt to enhance effect by adding extra oil.

8. Right here, Over the Rainbow - Introduce some colour to your Barbi food, red, green or yellow bell peppers are great flame-roasted to enhance flavours. Once skin has blackened, place in a plastic bag to cool. The skin will then easily peel-off. Green and yellow courgettes, also grill well as do chilies, as-

10. Don't forget its Safety First - Position BBQ's on level ground, well away from hedges, fences, or overhanging shrubbery. When lighting charcoal, only use proper BBQ lighter fuel, never, ever use petrol or other flammable liquids. If using gas ensure grill lights immediately, if it fails, turn off gas, leave for a few minutes and try again.

D-DAY 70th Commemorations

Lyme Regis 1944-2014

6th-8th JUNE

FROM November 1943 to June 1944, thousands of American troops were stationed in and around the villages and towns of Dorset and Devon as the Allied armies massed in preparation for D-Day, the huge invasion of Normandy on June 6th 1944 that marked the beginning of the world's liberation from the greatest evil in the history of mankind.

Many of the GIs, C Company of the US 16th Infantry Regiment, were based in Lyme Regis, which, like towns and villages all around, had sent off its own young men and women to serve in the world war.

Lyme and the Americans quickly became friends. Many residents now still fondly remember the great kindnesses shown to them as children by the generous GIs of C Company, some of whom won war brides here.

Some, including Captain Victor Briggs the commander of C Company, married and made a child here, whom they would never come home from the war to know. Capt. Briggs, who honeymooned at Lyme's Royal Lion Hotel, was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross in recognition of his valour on D-Day.

Eleven men from Lyme and nearby villages died in the Normandy campaign. More than 200 men from the US 16th Infantry Regiment fell on Omaha Beach, one of the five hellhole Normandy landing sectors.

To mark the 70th anniversary of D-Day and to salute the courage of all those who served that day in the ranks of Freedom – the airmen, seamen and soldiers of the British, American and Canadian forces and their comrades in the French Resistance – the Mayor, Town Council, Royal British Legion and the whole community of Lyme Regis is staging a weekend of commemoration, from Friday June 6th to Sunday June 8th.

Although the world's main focus will be on the Normandy Beaches on June 6th, when leaders of all nations attend ceremonies there, Lyme will play its small part by representing all of the towns and villages of Dorset and Devon with events organised to mark the two counties' own great debt to the honoured brave.

The whole town will be decked out red, white and blue with scores of Union Jack and Stars and Stripes flags and bunting, as Lyme's 'Flags For Heroes' salute. All are invited to attend the events, especially veterans and relatives of World War II Servicemen.

THE PROGRAMME OF EVENTS

During the D-Day Commemorations weekend and until July the Lyme Regis Museum will hold a special exhibition centred on the 11 local men who died in the Normandy campaign.

FRIDAY JUNE 6TH

6.00am St Michael's Church Cliffs – outdoor clifftop service of remembrance and salute conducted by the Rev Jane Skinner, timed to coincide with the beginning of the assault on Normandy of 70 years ago.

7.30pm The Woodmead Halls – D-Day Variety Show, an evening of wartime-themed entertainment performed by members of local organisations including: The Woodroffe School Jazz Band, the Dramatic Society, the Lyme Junior and Senior Majorettes and the Pantomime Society. Tickets £5.00 from the Tourist Information Centre. Tel 01297 442138.

SATURDAY JUNE 7TH

10.00am The Regent Cinema – a special screening of 'Went The Day Well?', a 1942 Ealing Studios war film of a Graham Greene story of an English village taken over by Nazi paratroopers – a particular Lyme fear during the war as the town was among the German invasion targets. Doors open 10.00 am, screening at 10.30 am. Tickets £1 downstairs, £2 upstairs. Tel 01297 442053.

7.00 pm The Woodmead Halls – D-Day Swing Dance Night; songs and themes of the 1940s performed by The Three Counties Swing Band, The Land Girls and the Lyme Regis ukulele group, The Luggers. 40s dress optional. Tickets £8.00 from the Tourist Information Centre. Tel 01297 442138.

SUNDAY JUNE 8TH

1.15pm Bell Cliff – unveiling by The Mayor of Lyme Regis of a commemorative plaque presented by the US 16th Infantry Regiment Association.

1.30pm Cobb Gate – full military and civic march on the seafront led by veteran Servicemen, the Royal British Legion standard-bearers, cadets and the Mayor of Lyme Regis with the Town Crier and Mace Bearers.

2.00pm The Jubilee Pavilion on the seafront – a full service and salute led by the Rev Stephen Skinner, the Mayor of Lyme Regis and the Royal British Legion with accompaniment from the Lyme Regis Town Band, with boats at The Cobb flying appropriate flags in joint salute.

2.30pm The Jubilee Pavilion – opening of an exhibition of wartime Lyme, including photographs, memorabilia and local memories and a Roll Call of the Lyme and American fallen recorded by the junior schoolchildren of Lyme Regis and Uplyme.

The Jubilee Pavilion Service will include messages from the relatives of those who fought at D-Day. One such message has been sent from the USA to Lyme Regis by Victor Harvey Briggs III, the son of Lyme's C Company commander, Captain Victor H. Briggs Jnr DSC, who died after D-Day in another battle, in Germany.

The letter reads: 'Lyme Regis is an important place for me because it was there that my mother and father spent the few brief weeks of their married life together. Many heroic men gave their lives on D-Day and during the campaign that followed. It is very gratifying to me that the people of Lyme Regis are honoring their sacrifice and their memory. I offer my sincere thanks for this tribute.'

IN THE SWING AT JAZZ & BLUES WEEKEND

SWING Fever comes to Lyme Regis on Saturday night at the Jazz & Blues Weekend, promise the organisers of Saturday Swing Fever on May 31st at Marine Theatre. It will, they say, be a feverish swing-a-thon, with jazz, blues and swing in a recreation of the 1930s and 40s. And to get everyone in the mood, Marine Theatre will be decked out in 30s Speakeasy-style.

Live jazz from the Pedigree Jazz Band will set

the scene for an upbeat evening of jazz, dance and downright fun. They come with pedigree in spades – with bandmasters Chris Walker and Roger Marks leading an accomplished six-piece band of musicians.

But the audience is not expected to sit on its hands. A dance master-class, courtesy of local Lindy Hop maestros, Lyme Bay Lindy, will soon have everyone up on their feet dancing like a pro. Expect jumpin' and jivin' to the Lindy Hop, jiggling and jagging to the Shim Sham, then slinkin' and sliding to the Blues later on. The entire Lyme Bay Lindy ensemble will be around for the evening to partner you around the dance-floor and help perfect your free-styling moves.

And finally, from 10.30pm onwards, for those who still have the poise, local boy DJ Ayvin will deliver an electro-swing set to bring the evening to a swinging finale. Anyone who wants to join the evening for the DJ set only will pay a reduced entry of £5 on the door.

Julie Sheppard, the festival's publicist said: "This is a different type of event for the Jazz & Blues Weekend. We hope it has wide appeal – you can listen, you can dance, you can dress up and swagger about. It should be enormous fun. You don't even need a partner, just a determination to enjoy yourself".

The organisers are also encouraging people to dress in the style of the era. Julie said: "This is a night for cool cats with a taste for vintage so dressing up is an absolute must – anything from the 20s, 30s, 40s or even 50s is fine. We'll be posting some outfit ideas on our Facebook page and we'll be giving out prizes for the best dressed!"

Doors Open 7.45pm Tickets: £10 (includes admission to DJ set from 10.30pm).

Admission to DJ set only £5 from 10.30pm

RISING STAR AT THE PALACE

EMMA Stevens achieved mainstream success with her single 'Riptide' from her first album Enchanted which featured this week on Irish National television's Late Late Show as well as BBC Radio One and Two. Her music has been described as "sparkly folk pop" behind which is her serious talent as a multi-instrumentalist. Don't miss Emma play at the Electric Palace this Friday.

Emma has worked with many established artists and songwriters all over the world, frequently making trips to LA, Nashville and Europe. Korean boy band "SHINEE" released one of Emma's songs on their album and it sold 100,000 copies in its first week of release, hitting the number 1 spot.

With a passion for performing, and longing to release her own music, Emma is now concentrating on her solo career as a singer-songwriter. Her music is catchy and filmic, and has been used on TV, clients including BBC and ITV. She has also worked with artists such as Kate Nash, Passenger and Jenn Bostic, who she supported on her recent UK tour. When Emma lost her Mum to cancer in 2012, she dealt with it in the only way she knew – through her music and song writing.

Emma planned a series of four EPs, each one with a unique and beautiful artwork designed by her Mum. Emma's Mum made the designs as a gift to Emma, and completed them just two weeks before she died. When all four are collected they will fit together like a puzzle to make a larger beautiful painting. This combination of art and music typifies Emma's unique approach to her work. Playing guitar, piano, cello, ukulele, banjo, mandolin, percussion and baritone guitar, all four EPs showcase Emma's talents as a songwriter and multi-instrumentalist.

Emma plays at Bridport's Electric Palace this Friday, May 30th, with doors opening 7.30pm. Tickets are £9 plus booking fee in advance, or £11 on the door. Advance tickets are available from Bridport TIC or seetickets.com. More information about the event can be found at www.electricpalace.org.uk

HAVE YOU EVER HEARD OF A TAP DANCING MERMAID?

THE Moon has got a story to tell about a tippy-top tap dancer who he has been watching at night and you can hear it at the Marine Theatre on Thursday, May 29th!

Marina Skippett creeps out at night to tap dance on the boardwalk to the sounds of the sea. She can't tap dance at home anymore since her evil, tractor-sized Aunty banned it, threatening to feed Marina's dinners to the dog! But then, one magical night, Marina meets a mysterious watery boy swimming alone and her life is never the same again!

Marina, The Moon and a bunch of beautiful, hand-crafted mer-puppets are swimming their way to the Marine Theatre to star in The Tap Dancing Mermaid, an innovative and exciting new one-woman show written and performed by Tessa Bide.

Following her extraordinary success and multiple sell-out performances performing in Niki McCretton's 'Mutnik: The First Dog In Space' and Stuff and Nonsense Theatre Company's 'Elves And The Shoemaker', the 'truly amazing one woman power house' Tessa Bide returns with her first, devised solo production. A "simply magical experience" (Machester's Finest), The Tap Dancing Mermaid features original, beautiful live music, stunning puppets and tap dance that will make you want to stick 50ps to your shoes and join in! For mer-boy and mer-girls 3 years and up.

The Tap Dancing Mermaid will be performed at the Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis on Thursday, May 29th, at 11am. All tickets are £5, and to book tickets, contact TIC on 01297 442138 or visit www.marinetheatre.com

BRISTOL OLD VIC PRESENT: SAUCE FOR THE GOOSE

BRISTOL Old Vic Theatre's performance Georges Feydeau's high spirited romp Sauce For The Goose is stuffed with preening characters knitting their legs in sexual frustration, and the show will be coming to Bridport this Friday.

Its heady mix of passions, pace and pleasure are the perfect mix for a good night out. The plot is simple: Lucienne is being pursued by the married Pontagnac, who is astounded to discover that she is already married to his friend Vatelin. Lucienne has sworn to be faithful as long as her husband remains so too. But then a keen old 'indiscretion' of her husband's arrives with her own husband from Germany in tow.

Untrustworthy husbands, betrayed wives, artful servants and crazed Germans demonstrate why the "naughty nineties" were so named, as master French farceur Feydeau's sparkling play switches from riotous farce to barbed social satire.

This exuberant play is brought to life by a new generation of talent fresh from one of Britain's finest drama schools.

Bristol Old Vic present Sauce For The Goose at 7.30pm on Friday, May 30th. The show is suitable for ages 12+, and tickets cost £12 adults, £11 members, and £10 students and concessions, available by calling 01308 424204 or visit www.bridport-arts.com

THE TRIALS OF OSCAR WILDE

THE criminal trials of one of wittiest men who ever lived will be brought to life at the Bridport Arts Centre on Wednesday, July 4th, 7.30pm. Written by his grandson, The Trials of Oscar Wilde will feature a host of familiar actors.

The action starts on 14 February 1895 - the triumphant opening night of The Importance of Being Earnest and the zenith of Wilde's career. Weeks later Wilde took a libel action out against Lord Queensberry, the father of his young friend Bosie, who had accused him of being a sodomite. Three days into the trial Wilde dropped the case and was himself arrested and charged with "unnatural acts" with other men.

Less than 100 days later, he found himself a common prisoner sentenced to two years hard labour. So what happened during the trials and what did Wilde say? Was he harshly treated or the author of his own downfall?

Written with Merlin Holland, Oscar Wilde's grandson and acclaimed author of 'The Real Trial of Oscar Wilde', the play is based on the original words spoken in court.

Merlin Holland said: 'Over the years, there have been a number of attempts to tell the story on stage but none of them has really managed to bring alive the drama of Oscar's courtroom appearances. Using the actual words from the libel trial, recently discovered more than a hundred years after the event, and with a careful reconstruction of Wilde's prosecution by the Crown for homosexuality, it's a chance for audiences to see the real Oscar for the first time. This new production shows him fighting for his art as well as his life and we get a real sense of Oscar's intellect at full stretch - his complexity, wit and deep humanity.'

The play features a talented cast including John Gorick (Holby City and Understudy for Rowan Atkinson in Quatermaine's Terms), Rupert Mason (Eastenders, A Touch of Frost) and William Kempshall. It is directed by Peter Craze (Doctor Who, Blake's Seven).

Tickets are priced £12/£11 members/£10 concessions. 20x Super £3 concessions will be saved for those in receipt of benefits, terms and conditions apply. Please contact the box office for more information 01308 424204 or book online at www.bridport-arts.com

Hardy Talk at Dorset County Museum

THE current series of Thomas Hardy events at Dorset County Museum continues with a talk about how local writers have responded to Portland Bill.

On Thursday, May 29th, Professor Roger Ebbatson of Lancaster University gives a talk entitled, The Isle of Portland: Some Literary Echoes. Prof Ebbatson will talk about the strange and rugged landscape surrounding Portland Bill; specifically looking at how writers like Thomas Hardy and AE Housman portrayed it in their work.

While Housman focussed on the predicament of a young convict, Hardy explored the landscape and folklore of Portland in his books and poems. In The Pursuit of the Well-Beloved, Hardy describes how one of his characters tries to commit suicide by taking a small boat out from Portland Bill into The Race. Knowing the area's notorious reputation for strong currents and lethal sandbanks, the man expects that he will soon be drowned. However, his wishes are foiled by the brave actions of island boatmen who rescue him just in time!

The talk is free but donations are encouraged to cover costs. The lecture starts at 7.30pm on Thursday 29 May and the doors are open from 7pm. Everyone is welcome to attend.

Get that Happy Monday vibe at Forever Sun festival

THE Happy Mondays are coming to Dorset to headline the Forever Sun Festival this summer in Dorchester. The iconic Manchester dance band are joining nineties chart toppers Toploader and punk legends the Buzzcocks at this year's three day festival to be held in the grounds of Came Estate between Friday 25th and Sunday, July 27th.

The Forever Sun Festival, now in its second year, was delighted to sign up the newly-reformed Mondays to perform with their original nineties line-up including 'I'm a Celebrity' favourite Shaun Rider, long-standing backing vocalist Rowetta and maraca-shaking mascot Mark 'Bez' Berry. Adding to the top names are the likes of former Sex Pistol, Glen Matlock, cult wannabe pop star John Otway and Steampunk guru, Professor Elemental.

Festival organiser, David Williams, said "Getting the Mondays to perform was a dream we've had at Forever Sun for quite some time" and added "we just had to wait until they had a free moment after their 25th anniversary tour. And to get punk legends the Buzzcocks as well really creates the vibe we wanted to achieve."

For more information on what this local festival has to offer, including free camping, student and group ticket rates, plus details on over sixty more artists, visit www.foreversun.co.uk.

Book Launch at Dorset County Museum

TP CONNOR will launch his new book, Thomas Hardy's Master: John Hicks, Architect, at Dorset County Museum on Thursday, March 29th.

The Victorian architect John Hicks has always been eclipsed by the literary fame of his infinitely more distinguished pupil Thomas Hardy. This new book looks at Hicks in his own right and in doing so, casts new light on Hardy's years of architectural training.

TP Connor was Head of History and the History of Art at Eton for nearly 20 years. He has written on early Palladian architecture, the Grand Tour and on a library in the English Civil war. His book will be available to buy on the night and is now on sale at Dorset County Museum's shop priced at £8.50.

Following the book launch at 6.30pm there will be a lecture by Professor Roger Ebbatson about how Dorset writers have related to the rugged landscape surrounding Portland Bill. The lecture starts at 7.30pm and all are welcome.

Whistle Down the Wind showing at the Evergreens Cinema

THE 1961 film 'Whistle Down the Wind' will be showing on the big screen at the Evergreens Cinema, at Age UK Dorchester on June 4th 2014.

Set on a remote Yorkshire farm, the film tells the story of three children who find a fugitive in the barn, and believe him to be Jesus. Starring a young Hayley Mills and an up and coming Alan Bates, the film has now become a British classic.

The cinema lights will dim at 1.45pm, tea and biscuits for just £1.50 will be served during the film, ice creams will be also available.

Everyone is welcome to come along to Age UK Dorchester's centre in Prince of Wales Road, and enjoy an afternoon of nostalgic screen entertainment.

For further information please contact Lucy or Carol on 01305 269444.

Intuitive Healing is the diagnosing and mending of our physical, emotional and sexual wellbeing from within. An intuitive Healer will carry out this work by directing energy to the required place of discomfort allowing the patient's own self healing powers to do the actual healing. Information about the root cause of the discomfort can also be channelled giving the patient an insight as to how best to self treat their individual problems.

Skyactiv Technology Models Puts Mazda Fleet Sales In The Fast Lane

MAZDA more than doubled fleet sales in 2013/14 and it is seeking further growth in core corporate registrations in 2014/15.

In the 12 months ending March 31, 2014, Mazda fleet sales accounted for 24.1 percent of 34,561 total registrations compared with 15.7 percent of volume in the preceding 12-month period as Mazda Motors UK saw overall sales increase by 9,070 units.

Fleet registrations increased 107 percent from 4,007 in 2012/13 to 8,319 in 2013/14 as fleet managers and company car drivers turned to Mazda in pursuit of low benefit-in-kind tax and first class economy delivered by the brand's breakthrough SKYACTIV technology featured in the Mazda CX-5, Mazda6 and all-new Mazda3.

Mazda's core fleet sales, which exclude daily rental, Motability and captive business, increased 127 percent year-on-year, with the multi award-winning Mazda6 making the most significant contribution to overall growth, rising a massive 211 percent from 2012/13.

During the 12 months under review Mazda Contract Hire, offered by every UK dealer, saw record levels of business with registrations up 214 percent year-on-year beating the previous best set seven years ago by 51 percent.

January 2014's launch of the all-new Mazda3 coupled with a plan to reduce sales into non-core channels with sales to end-user fleets in 2014/15 means that overall fleet volumes will be broadly unchanged at about 8,300 units.

Tomlinson said: "In 2014/15 we anticipate total fleet sales to remain at a similar level to 2013/14. However, Mazda's core fleet sales to end-user fleets are expected to rise as more fleet managers and company car drivers recognise the strength of our all-new Mazda3, Mazda6 and Mazda CX-5 models.

"We anticipate that core fleet sales will rise by around 30 percent in 2014/15 as we maximise the potential of SKYACTIV technology and the increasing opportunities we are seeing with new and existing customers.

He added: "In addition, apart from our six Fleet Specialist Dealers, many of our other franchise dealers have recognised that sales to fleets and small businesses are critical to their overall success.

"The Mazda franchise dealer network is open for fleet business and more are realising that corporate sales are a key component of their sales mix with Mazda Contract Hire an important facet within their overall offering."

Andrew Marshall, group franchise manager at Arnold Clark, one of Mazda's Fleet Specialist Dealers, said 2013/14 had been a "transformational year" for Mazda as corporate sales traction initially with SKYACTIV powered Mazda CX-5 and Mazda6 gathered pace.

60mpg V6 Tdi Ultra Spearheads New Generation Audi A7 Sportback Range

▲ The new generation Audi A7 Sportback

A NEW 60mpg V6 TDI ultra model is just one of the highlights of the new generation Audi A7 Sportback range, which has also been refreshed by other new engine configurations, plus new transmissions, new headlights and tail lights and upgraded infotainment systems. The latest incarnation of the multi-talented five-door with the emotional appeal of a coupe, the comfort of a saloon and the practicality of an Avant estate will arrive with its first UK customers in the last quarter of 2014.

Back when the A7 Sportback first debuted in 2010, Audi was already setting new standards in automotive design. Its long bonnet, flowing C-pillars and steeply raked rear end create a dynamic overall impression which has been amplified further in the new generation car by a raft of styling revisions.

The most striking changes are to the single frame grille, which adopts the latest hexagonal design, to the bumpers, which have been subtly resculpted, and to the tailpipes, which now have wider, trapezoidal apertures. LED headlamps also now complement the A7 Sportback's familiar LED daytime running lights as standard, and can be further enhanced by Matrix LED headlights.

By quite literally forming a beam using a matrix of individual Light Emitting Diodes, these advanced units can provide optimal lighting by dimming specific individual diodes to divert their pool of light around oncoming and following traffic without reducing their intensity in other areas. Dynamic indicators with a sweeping function in the direction of the turn are also standard at the rear and optional for the front light units.

The body of the new Audi A7 Sportback consists primarily of aluminium and high-tech steel grades. It is extraordinarily lightweight and designed for maximum comfort in terms of noise. The cargo space under the long, electrically powered tailgate has a base capacity of 535 litres. When the rear seat backs are folded down this increases to 1,390 litres.

The sleek sophistication of the exterior is echoed in the car's interior. The dominant element is the horizontal line surrounding the driver and passenger. The dashboard gives an impression of lightness and elegance which is now further enhanced by new interior materials, including aluminium/Beaufort walnut inlays. The colour palette has been revised, and now offers additional colour options now extending to include the Valcona leather upholstery available as an upgrade to the standard Milano leather in versions below the S line. In S line versions, which previously featured Valcona leather exclusively in black as standard, a Lunar silver option is also now offered.

The front seats can be optionally equipped with ventilation and massage functions, and there are four seat versions to choose from. The MMI radio plus operating system is standard and can be supplemented as an option with a head-up display that projects all important information onto the windscreen.

Power and efficiency: two TFSI and three TDI engines

From launch, the new generation A7 Sportback will be available with a choice of five powerful and highly efficient engines. The two petrol and three diesel units offer power outputs ranging from 218PS to 333PS, and comply with stringent EU6 emissions legislation.

Many aspects of the 3.0 TDI clean diesel with 272PS have been newly developed. In the "ultra" version with 218PS and front-wheel drive, the 3.0-litre V6 is capable of returning an outstanding 60.1mpg, corresponding to CO2 emissions of 122 grams per kilometre. The top-of-the-range engine, the 4.0-litre TFSI, is available in the Audi S7 Sportback. It delivers 450PS of power and uses innovative COD (cylinder on demand) technology.

The 3.0 TDI biturbo, which delivers 320PS, works with an eight-speed tiptronic transmission; all other engine configurations work with a seven-speed S tronic transmission. In the versions with front-wheel drive, the dual-clutch unit replaces the eight-speed multitemicronic CVT transmission and has been fully redeveloped. For engine outputs of 272PS and above, quattro permanent all-wheel drive can be supplemented with the sport differential, which actively distributes power between the rear wheels.

The chassis, too, combines great precision with relaxed comfort. The new Audi A7 Sport-back features wheels with diameters ranging from 18 to 21 inches. Some engine configurations are equipped with new lightweight brakes. The power steering system features an electromechanical drive for high efficiency.

The Audi drive select dynamic handling system is standard. Options include dynamic steering, two sports suspension options and adaptive air suspension; in the S7 Sportback, the air suspension has a firmer setup.

Latest generation MMI and Audi connect

The new generation Audi A7 Sportback leads the competition in terms of infotainment. It now features the latest generation of the Audi modular infotainment system built around the Multi Media Interface. The top system uses a powerful new graphics processor from Audi's partner Nvidia and includes MMI touch, enabling the driver to scroll and zoom in lists and maps via a touchpad.

Bridport Skittles League presentation night

BY STUART BROOM

Wanderers knock'em all over again

BRIDPORT Skittles League celebrated another successful evening with their annual presentation night held at Freshwater Holiday Park where John and Caroline Lambert representing Bridport Foundry and Stuart Models presented the awards.

Wanderers kept a tight grip on the Men's Division A title, winning for the fifth time in six years to leave Shipfaced once again the bridesmaids.

They also beat them in the final of the Herb Studley Nominations Cup; although Shipface did lift silver by beating Lively Lads, in the final of the Men's Gerry Nicholl Cup.

Lively Lads and Outsiders who were relegated from Division A last season, bounced back to regain the premier league status by filling the top two spots in Division B, whilst Mean Machine won Division C.

Unknowns leapt from third bottom last season to win Division D with Pioneers, relegated last term, returning to Division C as runners-up.

Last year's top three ladies teams reversed the order this season in the Ladies League Division A with Brandy Snaps named champions with Yo-Yo's second and Alleycats third.

Brandy Snaps also won the Ladies Palmer Knockout Cup, Ladies Gerry Nicholl Cup and Ladies Three's whilst individual members Gill Legg won the George Dyer Cup, and with partner Sally Newman, the Ladies Pairs, with Sue Yeatman winning the Ladies Individual Nomination Winner and also winner of the Ladies Highest Individual score of 82.

On Wednesday the Blues played a postponed match at Lyme Regis with wins for both Wilson, Bird & Smith (19-14) and Janet Tattershall, Jones & Fifield (20-11).

The A team also lost away to Wellworthy 49-57. Payne, Smith, Carter & Jones were unlucky however.

they pulled back well to 15-17 only to drop three shots on the last end.

The weekend friendlies were equally disastrous with the Saturday game against Seaton being cancelled due to rain and on Sunday six rinks travelled to Exmouth to be greeted by "You are not expected", so no game!

Ryan Hayter and Ben Clarke sweep the board

BRIDPORT Football Club celebrated a fairly successful season at their presentation evening held at the Beehive on Saturday.

All three sides achieved satisfactory results which all their managers admitted with a bit of luck and better application at times would have seen them higher in their respective leagues.

Captain Ryan Hayter once again took the main honours for the first team winning both the Home Player and Players' Player of the Year awards, the second one jointly with his fellow central defensive partner Shane Evans.

Matt Morley who joined the club from Weymouth at the beginning of the season certainly made his mark by being voted the Away Player and Young Player of the Year, whilst Ryan Dovell and Tom Richardson shared the Top Goalscorer's trophy with 18 goals apiece.

Striker Ben Clarke virtually swept the board in relation to the Reserves trophies, and like Hayter won the Home Player and Player's Player awards, as well as the Top Goalscorer with 23 goals; the seventh consecutive season that he has won it.

Gary Bulman was voted Away Player of the Year.

Ryan Gall and Zak Hawker were voted Home and Away Player of the Year respectively, with Luke Hayter picking up the Player's Player award and Adam Sturdy Top Goalscorer with seven goals.

Sponsors Darren Poole Builders chose Matt Condliffe as their Player of the Year, Darren Poole whilst picking out Morley as a contender, describing Condliffe as "quality" when handing over the award.

Sean Stewart, Clarke and Sturdy also received medals for scoring hat tricks.

Elizabeth Wright's work for the club was once again recognised with the Club Person of the Year, whilst George Stockley; one of the "Three Amigos" who together with Eddie Stiff and Roger Lewis dedicate themselves to so much behind the scenes at the club; picked up the trophy for the Sportsperson of the Year.

There was a special award this year for Young Helper of the Year which was won by nine-year-old Harvey Coombs, son of groundsman Sean who also picked up a lot of accolades for the superb state of the St Mary's Field in later speeches. Harvey helps tidy the dressing room as well as collecting the flags in after the game whatever the weather, and received a cup and confectionery for his hard work.

Committee member Rod Condliffe addressed the 74 players, officials and families following a sumptuous meal supplied by Kate and her team by thanking the club's sponsors, Darren Poole Builders and Gary Edwards, and especially the 20-30 Bees supporters that followed the team at all away matches.

All the managers gave brief speeches after having presented their players with their awards, with all praising everyone at the club, particularly committee members and volunteers behind the scenes who have helped run the club during the season, and there were floral presentations to Heather Scadding, Lucy Coombs and Elizabeth Wright, as well as thanks to many others.

Adam Sturdy, captain of the Thirds made a presentation to manager Andy Hitchcock who stood down at the end of the season, thanking him for all his hard work and the help he had given in improving players.

Reserve assistant manager Mark Lock in praising his side during the season said he was disappointed they didn't have a better finish to the end of the season, and suggested they need to improve regular training and set pieces for next season to ensure a higher finish.

Manager Trevor Senior once again highlighted the importance of the people off the field that make a successful club, and that they were lucky to be able to play on the best pitch

Motor racing

Thorne just misses out in thriller

RODNEY Thorne went close to taking the overall prize in Wimborne Park's latest race day, the Dorchester man just failing to overhaul Mike Lee in the event organised by the Torbay Motor Club.

Lee from Saltash in his OMS 2000 set the two fastest times to underline his dominance of the racing car classes with a best run of 36.60 seconds, well ahead of Simon Clemow in his Force PT.

However it was Thorne in his first run in his Pilbeam MP43 that took the overall runner-up spot in a time of 39.84 seconds.

His time naturally won which won him the Sports Libre class.

Huck sponsorship highlighted by Healey's wonder goal

SOME have called it the best goal ever scored in non-league football and now Joe Healy's remarkable strike at Grimsby has earned him the Huck Nets Goal of the Season National Game Award.

Huck Nets based at Gore Cross, Bridport supply nets for a variety of uses from sports and leisure to industrial and safety netting, and couldn't have chosen a better season to sponsor the award for the first time.

Welling United midfielder Healey (27) won the award when put his side ahead in the Skrill Premier League game at Grimsby Town in the Wings 1-1 draw on December 10th with what was a most spectacular goal.

Ross Lafayette set up Kurtis Guthrie whose cross from the right touchline found Healy close to the penalty spot. Out-muscling his marker, he took the ball on his chest, flicked it up and over another defender as he closed in with his left foot, and in the same movement produced a magnificent overhead right-footed scissor-kick into the top corner of the net beyond the helpless keeper.

Healy said: "You don't really dream of scoring good goals, but to have it recognised by people and recorded makes me very proud. To win goal of the season is fantastic."

The presentation was made by Huck Nets representative Adam Stordy, who also plays for Bridport Football Club at an event held in London recently.

Susan Moore played very steadily to win the Morning Cup and come 2nd in the overall nett competition.

Beryl Denham was there to present the trophy she had given to the club

The Junior Stableford was keenly contested as the junior big guns came away with the prizes - 1st David Lyon 40 points, 2nd George Seed 39 points, and 3rd George Yorke 38 points

In the May Stableford Division One, the top 3 all scored 37 points so on countback Paul 'Sonny' Liston won, Simon Harris was 2nd with Gareth Williams 3rd

Thirlwell one-two

In Division Two it was son and father affair as son Joey Thirlwell - 37 points, pushed father Mark - 35 points into 2nd place.

It was good to see that Mike Hankey - 34 points finish 3rd, taking time off from all the wonderful voluntary work he does around the grounds at the golf club.

West Dorset Junior League

UPLYME U15 XI 139 FOR 3 BEAT PUDDLETOWN 75 FOR 7 BY 64 RUNS

UPLYME maintained their 100 per cent record with a comprehensive victory over Puddletown.

Choosing to bat first on an artificial wicket Tyler Wellman and Jamie Murray made a positive start with Wellman dominating the strike and opting to go aerial over the long grass to score the majority off his runs. He rode his luck, being dropped twice in reaching the retirement score of 35. When Murray was bowled Harry Felgate, 11 and new boy Will Marshall 17 not out, took the score up to 90 in a more sedate fashion.

four maximums

It was left to finisher Wesley Holmes to boost the total to a quick fire 39 not out in four overs which included four successive sixes in one over.

Upыме had to fight hard to remove Puddletown's top order batsmen. Ben Hargreaves and Nick Brown batted extremely well and whilst they were at the crease to keep their team in with a chance.

Skipper Rhys Davies eventually bowled both for 14 and 33 respectively and as a result the Puddletown resistance faltered. Davies finished with 3 for 14 and was well supported by George Merritt who had figures of 3 for 16 whilst Felgate took the remaining wicket bowling four overs, and conceded only 12 runs.

The victory takes Upymе to the top of the league.
